

Caroline Black Sikorske

Caroline Black Sikorske is Board Certified in Marital and Family Law, is listed in The Best Lawyers of America, and is rated AV by Martindale Hubbell.

After graduating with her Juris Doctor degree from Stetson University College of Law, Caroline was an Assistant State Attorney for Hillsborough County before devoting her practice 100% to marital and family law in 1989.

Caroline has served in numerous positions, including leadership positions, in national, state, and local professional legal organizations in her pursuit of excellence.

In addition to being Past Chair of the Family Law Section of the Florida Bar, Caroline has served on the Executive Council and has chaired the Family Law Continuing Legal Education committee.

Caroline is currently the Immediate Past President of the Florida Chapter of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers (AAML), has previously served on the AAML Board of Directors, and was the Chair of the Annual Institute Committee in 2009.

Caroline is a Past President of the Hillsborough County Bar Association (HCBA), Past Chair of the Family Law Section of HCBA and is currently Co-Chair of the new Collaborative Divorce Section. Caroline has also previously chaired a Thirteenth Judicial Circuit Grievance Committee.

Caroline is both an accomplished writer and speaker on family law issues. In addition to authoring a chapter on Equitable Distribution in the Florida Bar's Dissolution of Marriage book, and has authored numerous articles about a variety of family law issues for the HCBA Lawyer magazine, the Florida Bar Journal, and the Florida Family Law Section Commentator. Caroline has also spoken on family law issues to various groups including the AAML, HCBA, and the Florida Bar.